

Student/Resident Experiences And Rotations in Community Health (SEARCH) Program Summary

SEARCH Program	Cal-Search
Organization Type	State of California Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development Healthcare Workforce Development Division (Government-State)
Project Contact	Felicia M. Borges
Address	400 R Street, Room 330 Sacramento, CA 95811
Phone	(916) 326-3768
Fax	(916) 322-2588
Email	Cal-SEARCH@oshpd.state.ca.gov
Website	www.oshpd.ca.gov/HWDD/Cal-SEARCH/index.html
Project Service Focus	Urban/Central City, Rural
Length of Rotation	4 -6 weeks
Disciplines eligible for rotation	Family/Primary Care Medical Students and Residents in the following disciplines: -Medicine -Nurse Practitioners -Physician Assistants -Dentistry
Project Infrastructure Focus	Service-linked training, opportunity for mentorship, and participation in a community project.
Stipend/Living Cost	$665
General Description of Your Program	OSHPD, in partnership and collaboration with the California Primary Care Association and the California Area Health Education Center, will match 75 primary care students and residents in 15-25 Community Healthcare Clinics. Students/residents will also participate in community projects and receive mentoring.
Goals and Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify 75 primary care students and residents to participate in Cal-SEARCH within one year of the contract start date Identify 15-25 CCHCs for participation in Cal-

	SEARCH <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Match 75 primary care students and residents to clinical rotation experiences within CCHCs • Develop a standardized curriculum for Cal-SEARCH students and residents that will guide their participation in community projects • Develop standardized Cal-SEARCH preceptor training module and train preceptors • Develop an Evaluation Plan that identifies data points necessary to measure the success and challenges of Cal-SEARCH
Activities undertaken by Students/Residents in Program	Students/residents will receive service-linked and didactic training in the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individual health problems based on cultural beliefs/values • The latest healthcare delivery advances (such as medical home) • Patient-centered care and approaches • Practicing healthcare as part of an interdisciplinary team • Patient participation in health treatment and care decisions • Taking advantage of the latest technological advancements, such as Electronic Health Records • Racial and ethnic health disparities Additionally, students/residents will be paired with a mentor as well as participate in community projects, to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Community assessment • Research on a specific community health problem • Health education, promotion, and outreach • Survey of community resources, planning, and organization • Coordination of public health interventions (e.g., health screening, smoking cessation, and immunization programs)
List of Sites Students can/will be rotating through	TBA